

Middle School/High School English Teacher Full-Time

Job Description:

Orangeburg Preparatory Schools is seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic Middle School/High School English Teacher. The ideal candidate will have a passion for reading, literature, grammar, and writing and be committed to helping students grow in their communication and critical thinking skills.

Responsibilities:

- Teach English Language Arts to students in grades 8 and 9
- Create engaging and developmentally appropriate lesson plans
- Foster a positive and inclusive classroom environment
- Communicate effectively with parents and colleagues
- Participate in school events and extracurricular activities

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in English or related field
- Experience teaching middle school or high school students preferred
- Strong classroom management and organizational skills
- Commitment to the mission and values of Orangeburg Prep

Why Join Orangeburg Prep?

- Supportive school community with small class sizes
- Competitive salary and benefits
- Opportunities for professional development
- Beautiful campus with strong academic and extracurricular programs

To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume and references to Libby Ray, Head of Schools, at lrays@orangeburgprep.com